Custom Print

Increase your name recognition with brilliant color!

Dart custom print can boost your sales and profits by increasing the exposure of your business name and message. The quality of Dart products upholds the image of your business, while custom print increases your market visibility.

An added benefit of custom printing is a coordinated look with your other branded items such as menus and signs. Your business will present a unified look which further reinforces your company identity.

Available on both foam and plastic products, Dart custom printing will add color and style to your foodservice program.

Take advantage of these Dart Custom Print features:

- Ultraviolet inks for brighter colors and sharper print definition (UV inks emit no volatile organic compounds into the environment)
- Color coordination with other printed items
- Printing available in up to four spot colors on foam cups, translucent cold cups, and deli containers
- Printing available in up to six spot colors on Conex Classic clear cups
- Low minimum order quantities
