SEGMENT PRODUCTS

Bakeries are blending into many operations you already sell – whether it is the mom and pop shop on the corner, a supermarket, a hotel that welcomes it's guest with a warm treat or the restaurant that prepares it's own desserts or uses a bake off bread product – they are all bakeries.

They know all the products they need to run a successful operation – the flour – sugar – shortening – the bake off products as well as the packaging and specialty papers needed in the preparation process. They're your customers – treat them right – show them the total solution.
